CODE OF CONDUCT

This is an official document of USNSCC Summer Training Command. All personnel are responsible for knowing its contents.

In order to live, work, learn, and become a team, certain rules must be established under which cadets may grow and work together. To this end, the following Code of Conduct is established. All personnel, cadets, and staff:

1. Will conduct themselves in a military manner so as to bring credit to themselves, their home unit, the United States Naval Sea Cadet Corps, and the United States Navy.
2. Will not use vulgar, obscene, profane, humiliating, racially/ ethnically slanted language or address to one another.
3. Will not threaten, or attempt to do bodily harm to one another.
4. Will not take, obtain, or withhold by any means, the property, money, or other articles of value from another.
5. Will not introduce with the intent to use, sell, transfer, or distribute any amount of illicit drugs or paraphernalia, alcoholic beverages, or tobacco products.
6. Will not engage in collection, soliciting, or distributing funds of any kind except as authorized by the command.
7. Will not willfully damage or destroy and government or personal property.
8. Will refrain from physical contact, hand-passed notes, romantic interludes, and any behavior deemed inappropriate by training standards.
9. Will speak to or about each other in a respectful manner. There is to be no arguing, gossiping, backbiting, teasing, or other language deemed unacceptable.

Failure to abide by these rules, and other guidelines established by the Commanding Officer may result in disciplinary action, extra military instruction (EMI) or dismissal from training.

All reported violations of this Code of Conduct will be investigated. Accusations determined to be knowingly false will carry the same penalty as the violation itself.

This command has a ZERO TOLERANCE policy concerning hazing, sexual harassment, and fraternization. Transportation costs for anyone dismissed from training rest with the parents or home unit.
