NSCC ACTION LETTER 01-11

From: Executive Director, U.S. Naval Sea Cadet Corps

To: See Distribution

Subj: PRELIMINARY GUIDANCE GOVERNING THE WEAR OF THE

Ref: (a) NSCC/NLCC Uniform Manual

1. Purpose. To provide interim guidance for the proper wearing of the Navy Working Uniform by Officer, Midshipmen, Instructor and NSCC/NLCC Cadet personnel.
2. Discussion. Starting 1 January 2011 the Navy Working Uniform (NWU) was authorized for wear by members of the Naval Sea Cadet Corps. The NWU is an expensive uniform, approximately $135.00 per set (new), and under no circumstances shall a unit pressure an individual to buy this uniform. Commanding officers are reminded that All members of the unit SHALL be in the same uniform; uniformity is paramount. The Navy Working Uniform is authorized to be worn at all facilities on base, at the assigned drill space, while doing unit community service activities, while commuting to/from work and home via POV, public transportation and short stops to conduct errands such as day care centers or to go to lunch.
